

AGE WORKS
THERS, OMNIBUSES,
WAGONS.

GAHMAN,
Cordo-Sts.
Order!
SPECIALTY.

NEC'S
the ANOS.

improvements, and are in Every Particular.

CANS.

and Sweetness of
in Use.
anted for 5 Years.
ianos and Organs sold or ken in exchange for new ments Repaired.

MONROE STS.,
R HOUSE,
CHICAGO.

led in Speed and Safety /
ated in its Equipment!
ditional Express Trains!
uperb Pullman Sleepers!
at Palace Day Coaches!
er through City System!
ent Track & Steel Rails!

TESTIMONY OF THE TRAVEL-ERS referred to the above information.

TOLEDO,
ASH &
WESTERN WAY,

et East & West Fast Line

Having Terminal at

Louis, Homestead,
Key, Krakow, Pittsfield,
Bloomington, and Pekin,

Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Day

the entire Lake Superior and Between Toledo, Kansas City and Chicago. The important connections with Milwaukee, Chicago, Indianapolis, Louisville,

Baltimore, Philadelphia, New

York, Boston, and all the great cities of the country.

W. L. MALCOLM,

Passenger and Ticket Agent.

WILLIAMSON

Painter!

RUFUS C. CROCKER

No. 9 WATER ST.

REGD. TRADE

ALSO THE

ROTARY!

Which are positively the TWO BEST SOFT GAS BURNERS in the market.

He has also a full and complete line of

HEATING

— AND —

COOKING STOVES!

Hardware,

Nails, Glass,

Etc., Etc.

CHEAP FOR CASH.

Sept. 20, 1875—dawn.

Warren & Durfee

Abstracts of Title

INSURANCE,

REAL ESTATE

— AND —

Conveyancing Office.

300

TOWN LOTS!

FOR SALE,

ON EASY TERMS.

October 20, 1875—d.

M. V. THOMAS, late with Mr. T. A.

Gehrmann, is now with the Globe Shoe

House, post office block.

JUNO 26 dft

Pike, the Jeweler, keeps the best

Spectacles in the city, and sells them at a reasonable price.

[Sept. 14th]

20 yards of good Calico for one dollar.

12 yards of heavy Brown Cotton for one dollar, and 12 yards of fine Bleached Cotton for one dollar, at Linn & Sonnen.

May 10 dft

M. V. THOMAS, late with Mr. T. A.

Gehrmann, is now with the Globe Shoe

House, post office block.

JUNO 26 dft

OVERMIRE &

KAUFMAN,

REAL ESTATE,

Insurance, Loan

— AND —

COLLECTING AGENTS.

MONEY LOANED,

Notes Bought and Sold,

Houses Rented,

and Taxes Paid.

Special Attention given to Renting Houses.

All business entrusted to us will receive careful and prompt attention.

OFFICE:

OVER THE DECATUR NATIONAL BANK

MARCH 10, 1875—dawn.

JAMES.

LOCK HOSPITAL,

CON. FRANKLIN

& WASHINGTON

CHICAGO, ILL.

Chartered by the State of Illinois

for the purpose of treating the sick and disabled.

In all diseases and complications of the human body.

Known to most persons in the United States for the past 24 years.

Aged and experienced in the successful treatment of all diseases, especially those of the heart, liver, kidneys, lungs, etc.

Ladies requiring the best home and board, may call or wire for a consultation.

Dr. J. L. KNIPEL, T.

Office hours, 5 P.M. &

Consultation invited. Call or write.

DAVIS FURNITURE CO.

114 Monroe St., Chicago, Ill.

May 4, 1875—dawn.

Great Bargains in Jewelry at J. L.

Kniepels, 24 Merchant street.

Feb. 7 dawtins.

All kinds of Tea at cost, at

SYLVETTE BROTHERS'.

Feb. 15 dawtins.

Decatur Furniture Co.

114 Monroe St., Chicago, Ill.

May 4, 1875—dawn.

Don't buy a PUMP until you examine

our stock and prices.

DECATOR WOOD PUMPS

From their factory at wholesale prices, for

CASH, as follows:

No. 1—Well Pump, $1.25.

No. 2—Shank large, 4.50.

No. 3—Shank " 3.75.

No. 4—Shank " 3.50.

No. 5—Shank " 3.50.

Pump Cylinders, $2.00 extra.

Tubing, 10 cents per foot, &c., &c.

Don't buy a PUMP until you examine

our stock and prices.

CELEBRATED

DECATOR WOOD PUMPS

From their factory at wholesale prices, for

CASH, as follows:

No. 1—Well Pump, $1.25.

No. 2—Shank large, 4.50.

No. 3—Shank " 3.75.

No. 4—Shank " 3.50.

No. 5—Shank " 3.50.

Pump Cylinders, $2.00 extra.

Tubing, 10 cents per foot, &c., &c.

Don't buy a PUMP until you examine

our stock and prices.

DECATOR FURNITURE COMPANY

Will repair the

CELEBRATED

DECATOR WOOD PUMPS

From their factory at wholesale prices, for

CASH, as follows:

No. 1—Well Pump, $1.25.

No. 2—Shank large, 4.50.

No. 3—Shank " 3.75.

No. 4—Shank " 3.50.

No. 5—Shank " 3.50.

Pump Cylinders, $2.00 extra.

Tubing, 10 cents per foot, &c., &c.

Don't buy a PUMP until you examine

our stock and prices.

DECATOR FURNITURE COMPANY

Will repair the

CELEBRATED

DECATOR WOOD PUMPS

From their factory at wholesale prices, for

CASH, as follows:

No. 1—Well Pump, $1.25.

No. 2—Shank large, 4.50.

No. 3—Shank " 3.75.

No. 4—Shank " 3.50.

No. 5—Shank " 3.50.

Pump Cylinders, $2.00 extra.

Tubing, 10 cents per foot, &c., &c.

Don't buy a PUMP until you examine

our stock and prices.

DECATOR FURNITURE COMPANY

Will repair the

CELEBRATED

DECATOR WOOD PUMPS

From their factory at wholesale prices, for

CASH, as follows:

No. 1—Well Pump, $1.25.

The Daily Republican.

HAMSHER & MOSSER,
S. M. HAMSHER, J.
M. MOSSER, Publishers.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS
Thursday Evening, August 31.

National Republican Ticket.

For President,
RUTHERFORD B. HAYES,
of Ohio.
For Vice President,
WILLIAM A. WHEELER,
of New York.

Republican State Ticket.

For Governor,
SHELBY M. CULLOM,
of Sangamon
For Lieutenant Governor,
ANDREW SHUMAN,
of Cook
For Secretary of State,
GEORGE H. HARLOW,
of Tazewell;
For Auditor of Public Accounts,
THOMAS B. NEEDLES, of Washington
For Treasurer,
EDWARD RUTZ,
of St. Clair
For Attorney General,
JAMES K. EDSALL,
of Lee
For Congress,
JOSEPH G. CANNON
of Vermillion county
For Member of the Board of Equalization
WILLIAM T. MOFFETT, of Macon county

Republican County Ticket.

For Clerk of the Circuit Court,
E. MCLELLAN,
For Sheriff,
MARTIN FORSTMAYER
For State's Attorney,
JOSIAH BROWN
For Coroner,
CASS CHENOWETH

GENERAL BLACK

His Speech at the Court House Last Night

The Keynote of His Campaign—"Me"

The opening of the campaign upon the part of the Democracy and "Reformers" took place at the court house last evening. General Charles Black being the orator of the occasion. The court house was well-filled, though not crowded—a large portion of the audience being Republicans.

The meeting was called to order by Farmer Jack, whose well-known propensity for "packing" would not permit him to lose the opportunity to "fix things." He had a slate prepared, and the officers of the meeting were voted in according to his plan. J. H. Pickrell was made chairman, and upon taking his seat he got off one of the most timely little speeches of the season.—He said he felt honored by being called to preside over such a meeting, and inasmuch as the gentleman who was to speak was a candidate, and therefore would be very apt to forget everybody but himself, he would beg leave to remind his hearers that the (Pickrell) was himself a candidate for lieutenant governor. The scarcity of "organs" in the party to which the chairman-candidate belongs, and the fact that his nomination by the Decatur convention had been sedulously ignored by the convention to which the majority of the audience owes allegiance, made the announcement seem singularly appropriate, although the close observer could not fail to detect a tinge of bitterness in the manner of the chairman.

Gen. Black began his oration by the application of a liberal quantity of soft soap, and an endeavor to put himself on good terms with the Republican portion of his hearers—an endeavor which he entirely neutralized by devoting the entire body of his speech to unmeasured abuse of that party, its members and leaders. The singular feature of his speech was his attempt to convey the idea that he is not a partisan himself, while every sentence contained some stereotyped Democratic slang about Gen. Grant and his administration, and though he was filled to the brim with this character of abuse he had not a word to say in denunciation of the Democratic party, nor did he say aught which could offend the most sensitive member of that organization. He did not mention any of the candidates for president, and although advocating purity and reform in the administration he entirely ignored the fact that the public press of the country is teeming with charges of the gravest character against the man whom he intends to support for that high office. He abused Mr. Cullom, and advised his hearers to vote for Stewart, but as there are two opposition candidates for the next office on the state ticket he was as eloquent as a stone post with reference to their merits, notwithstanding one of them was within reach of his hand, and had given unmistakable evidence of his willingness to be endorsed by the general.

It has been said of General Black that he never speaks without telling his hearers something about the ancients, and delving about among the legends of classic lore. Last night was no exception to the rule, for the general rockishly flung into the faces of his democratic audience an allusion to "Ormus and Iad," and wretchedly pitched at them bewildered heads the story of Laocoon, not caring whether they went away under the impression that this fabulous priest had anything to do with the greenback question or not. But soon, he abused Grant and the republicans, and his democratic worshippers understood that and they were happy.

The financial fallacies of the speech will be fully answered at the court house to-night, by General Moore, who, while he may not deal in the classics to such an extent—having got old enough to be more practical—knows more about politics and legislation than Decatur since 1839.

To them were born two children, Mary Bell, who died in 1862, and Carrie who is now Mrs. Clokey. Mrs. Elson leaves sorrowing her, her husband and daughter Carrie. Of her brothers and sisters there remain John, William and Benjamin Sawyer, and Mrs. Ellen Barnes, wife of Dr. William A. Barnes, all of Decatur, Ills., Miss Eliza Sawyer of Lewisburg, Pa., Mrs. Martha Lack of Millersburg, Pa., Thos. J. Sawyer of Halifax, Pa., and Mrs. J. Young, of Clinton Hill, near Philadelphia.

An early pioneer the deceased, shared with her brothers and neighbors the hardships of the "days gone by," when Macon county was in its infancy. She has been identified with its history, and has witnessed our beautiful city, Decatur, pass from a modest country village to its present status as a leading inland city.

Suffice it to say, the speech was an exceedingly lame affair—much the poorest one ever made by Gen. Black in Decatur. So painfully aware was he himself of the demagogic character of his effort that when he started in on the hard times dodge he apologized for it in order to make it less farcical. His references to Mr. Cannon were of the same nature, and his whole speech went to show that he had no other motive but that of success. His stock in trade was, "if you want a congressman to do thus and so, elect Me."

The speech was listened to with marked attention, but the applause only broke forth when the Democratic ear was tickled by some abuse of the Republican party.

In these days of Democratic pretensions to reform and purity of purpose it is refreshing to turn back the leaves of history and read of the masterly schemes in this direction which were carried to fruition by former Administrations in which Southern politicians had command of the ship of state, and Northern doughfaces occupied the forecastle and did the menial labor and got all the kicks for the Constitution's sake. One item of reform is particularly prominent during the administrations of Polk, Pierce, and Buchanan. It is a decidedly rich mine for the workers therein. There were in those early days a few scattered Indians in North Carolina and Northern Georgia. The philanthropic reformer of that epoch, sympathizing with these lonely beings, conceived a plan to remove them to the Far West, where they might have pure air, better hunting grounds, and enjoy larger opportunities for getting and losing scalps. This was a glorious project, but where was the money to come from? Such questions never bothered the great Reformer of those days. The National Treasury was open to him, and the great man seemed to be behind their efforts in taking advantage of that fact. There were but few Indians to transport, and the cost per savage would be small, yet there was another transport to be provided for, and that was where the most costly part of the contract came in. It was the personal transport, of the joyful sort, with which those reformers left their profits after receiving about three millions of dollars for the noble work of removing these Indians, or about $120 per head where the actual cost was not above $20 per head. It is expected that these noble minded men or their heirs will immediately return the above difference to the Treasury in order that Mr. Tilden's chances may not be imperiled.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Independent democratic Boston Herald has concluded that Hayes is a clean man, and that mud will not stick to him.

The president could hardly do less than take official notice of the death of Speaker Kerr, but he might easily have done it much more ungraciously and in a less manly tone. His letter will be read with much interest and pleasure.

The New York Herald believes the democrats of New York will be pleased to find a candidate for governor as strong with their party as Governor Morgan is with the republicans. The Herald says: "With the single exception of Governor Seymour there is no democratic citizen in the state who approaches Mr. Morgan in the ability to turn the resources of his own party to the best account."

The joint canvas of Judge Settle, republican candidate for governor, and Gov. Vance, democratic candidate for the same office, in North Carolina, is proceeding very much to the satisfaction of the republicans. The correspondent of the New York Times reports that the republican candidate will in the counties canvassed receive all of the colored votes and half the white vote. If Ohio and Indiana give decided republican majorities in October the victory in North Carolina will be overwhelming.

The Peoria Transcript wheels into line as a supporter of Col. Boyd for congress. The name went to the head of the column by order of Mr. Emery.

16 Yards Standard Prints for $1.00, at S. EINSTEIN'S.

OBITUARY.

DIED.—August 30th, at his home in Decatur, Miss Mary Bell, Esq.

Few were the words, but they closed the lids that contain another life's volume.

Ten o'clock, August 31st—one day since she died—one day in Eternity—One day more precious to her than the almost sixty one years in time. One day with her God, one day with her Savior and one day with the little "Mary Bell," that died twenty odd years ago.

Mrs. Elson was born the 16th of September, 1818, in Lebanon county, Pennsylvania. She was one of eleven children, born to Hon. John Sawyer and Mary Sawyer, of Lebanon county, a family of six daughters and five sons.

In 1838 she came with her brother,

Benjamin Sawyer, to Macon county, Illinois, where her brother John had resided for several years, since which time she has lived in or near Decatur.

On the 1st of March 1849 she was married to Michael Elson, a resident of Decatur since 1839.

Mr. Elson died in 1862, and Carrie who is now Mrs. Clokey.

Mrs. Elson leaves sorrowing her, her husband and daughter Carrie. Of her brothers and sisters there remain John, William and Benjamin Sawyer, and Mrs. Ellen Barnes, wife of Dr. William A. Barnes, all of Decatur, Ills., Miss Eliza Sawyer of Lewisburg, Pa., Mrs. Martha Lack of Millersburg, Pa., Thos. J. Sawyer of Halifax, Pa., and Mrs. J. Young, of Clinton Hill, near Philadelphia.

An early pioneer the deceased, shared with her brothers and neighbors the hardships of the "days gone by," when Macon county was in its infancy. She has been identified with its history, and has witnessed our beautiful city, Decatur, pass from a modest country village to its present status as a leading inland city.

Suffice it to say, the speech was an exceedingly lame affair—much the poorest one ever made by Gen. Black in Decatur.

So painfully aware was he himself of the demagogic character of his effort that when he started in on the hard times dodge he apologized for it in order to make it less farcical.

His references to Mr. Cannon were of the same nature, and his whole speech went to show that he had no other motive but that of success. His stock in trade was, "if you want a congressman to do thus and so, elect Me."

The speech was listened to with marked attention, but the applause only broke forth when the Democratic ear was tickled by some abuse of the Republican party.

In these days of Democratic pretensions to reform and purity of purpose it is refreshing to turn back the leaves of history and read of the masterly schemes in this direction which were carried to fruition by former Administrations in which Southern politicians had command of the ship of state, and Northern doughfaces occupied the forecastle and did the menial labor and got all the kicks for the Constitution's sake. One item of reform is particularly prominent during the administrations of Polk, Pierce, and Buchanan. It is a decidedly rich mine for the workers therein. There were in those early days a few scattered Indians in North Carolina and Northern Georgia. The philanthropic reformer of that epoch, sympathizing with these lonely beings, conceived a plan to remove them to the Far West, where they might have pure air, better hunting grounds, and enjoy larger opportunities for getting and losing scalps. This was a glorious project, but where was the money to come from? Such questions never bothered the great Reformer of those days. The National Treasury was open to him, and the great man seemed to be behind their efforts in taking advantage of that fact. There were but few Indians to transport, and the cost per savage would be small, yet there was another transport to be provided for, and that was where the most costly part of the contract came in. It was the personal transport, of the joyful sort, with which those reformers left their profits after receiving about three millions of dollars for the noble work of removing these Indians, or about $120 per head where the actual cost was not above $20 per head. It is expected that these noble minded men or their heirs will immediately return the above difference to the Treasury in order that Mr. Tilden's chances may not be imperiled.

GENTLY CLOSING ITS EYES.

Word comes to us from every quarter in Vermillion county that the "greenback" tidal wave has spent itself, and that the party is in the throes of dissolution. By November there will hardly be left in its ranks one to tell of its rise, progress and death. Its members are resolving themselves back into their original elements, and will very soon deny that they ever followed the ignis fatuus.—Danville Times.

A very good reason for voting the republican ticket was offered by an old Gorham democrat, a few days ago; he said "I have been a democrat all my life, and even in and during the war I called myself a democrat still, but now I see arrayed against the republican candidates all of the old enemies of the war—those who constantly insisted that the war was a failure, and that the South could never be coerced into the Union. I see, also, that the democratic party claim an undivided South as going against the republican party in the coming presidential election, I see the two men who head the democratic ticket as a part of the crowd who opposed the prosecution of the war for the suppression of the rebellion, and I think it is time for me to join the ranks of the friends of the Union."

TO BE READ AT BOTTOM PRICES.

No. 35 West Main St.,

Successor to WILLIAM FRAZER

Decatur, Aug. 31, 1876—W&E

TELEGRAPHIC.

POLITICAL.

New York Democrats Nominate Horatio Seymour.

CONNECTICUT. REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Old State Ticket Renominated.

GREAT FLOOD IN OHIO.

The San Francisco Fire.

SARATOGA, Aug. 30.—The democrat is state convention assembled at noon. Hon. Rufus Peckham, was chosen temporary chairman, and briefly addressed the convention. After the appointment of various committees, the convention took a recess till seven this evening.

Upon reassembling, Hiram Gray was chosen permanent chairman.

The platform rededicated that a return to the constitutional principles, frugal expenditures, and administrative purity of the founders of the republic, is the first and most imperious necessity of the times, and the commanding issue now before the people of this union—reaffirms the principles in the Syracuse platform of 1874, and the St. Louis convention, condemning all interference with constitutional amendments, all violations of the laws, that all people in all states alike, regardless of race, color or condition, are entitled to equal protection, and that all orders or practices whereby public order and peace are disturbed, should receive a public rebuke and punishment, and enter a solemn protest against the recent order of the secretary of war, approved by the president of the United States, placing troops in the southern states with a view to intimidate the people and control their elections, government by the bayonet to take the place of government through the ballot, is an outrage which demands the condemnation of all who love republican freedom and hate despotic power.

Horatio Seymour was then nominated for governor by acclamation. Adorned.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 30.—The republican state convention was held here to day. Ex Governor Jewell was chosen permanent chairman. The convention nominated for senator at large ex-President Theodore D. Woolsey, of Yale College, and Hon. Mahala Jewell.

The old state ticket was renominated as follows: For governor, Henry Robinson, lieutenant governor, F. J. Kingsbury; secretary of state, General F. A. Walker, treasurer, Jeremiah Thompson; comptroller, Eli Curtis.

The platform protests against fraud, intimidations and violence by disreputable politicians; declares for reform in the civil service, protests against the repeat by the democratic house of the species re-sumption clause; characterizes Tilden as a man who withheld from the friends of the union his sympathy and support; when the nation's existence was in peril, and declares General Grant entitled to thanks for his patriotic service to the country.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—The total losses by the fire are greater than at first supposed, aggregating $780,000.

Eighty-eight buildings were destroyed. Insurance, $145,000, distributed in small sums among nearly all the companies represented here. The German Benevolent Society lost $125,000 on hospital; insurance, $25,000. There is reason to believe the fire was incendiary, with the object of destroying manufacturers employing Chinese.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.—The Evening's Springfield, Ohio, special says a tremendous rain fell in that city, to night. In twenty minutes the streets were like rivers and many store rooms and residences were flooded. The track of the Cleveland, Columbus & Cincinnati railroad was washed out between Morefield and Logonda, and an engine and baggage car of the northbound bound passenger train was ditched and badly wrecked.

THE DENVER TIMES says Gov. Routt, Colorado candidate for Governor in Colorado, is so popular in Denver that a Democratic Club stepped in to assist him when they heard of his nomination to give three cheers.

To Our Friends and Former Patrons.—Having discontinued our mercantile tailoring department, we take pleasure in commanding the skill of Mr. Schäffel, who has taken a position with Messrs. J. R. Raco & Co., as a first class cutter, to all who desire elegance and ease in the fit of their garments.

LINE & SCOTTES.

85 to $20 per day at home. Sample $20 worth. 100 ft. long. $100 per yard. Co. Portland, Maine.

Fair Stands supplied with candy, nuts, cakes, pop corn balls and everything in our line—call at Oliver & Wood's grocery factory.

16 Yards Standard Prints for $1.00, at S. EINSTEIN'S.

LEAVE the table and go to your room, sir," exclaimed a Burlington person to his inconsiderate son, "and I'll be up and attend to you one after another." "Father," replied the youthful Tildenite, "it is absurd to fix a date without making necessary preparations.

The Peoria Transcript wheels into line as a supporter of Col. Boyd for congress. The name went to the head of the column by order of Mr. Emery.

16 Yards Standard Prints for $1.00, at S. EINSTEIN'S.

"LEAVE the table and go to your room, sir," exclaimed a Burlington person to his inconsiderate son, "and I'll be up and attend to you one after another." "Father," replied the youthful Tildenite, "it is absurd to fix a date without making necessary preparations.

The Peoria Transcript wheels into line as a supporter of Col. Boyd for congress. The name went to the head of the column by order of Mr. Emery.

16 Yards Standard Prints for $1.00, at S. EINSTEIN'S.

"LEAVE the table and go to your room, sir," exclaimed a Burlington person to his inconsiderate son, "and I'll be up and attend to you one after another." "Father," replied the youthful Tildenite, "it is absurd to fix a date without making necessary preparations.

The Peoria Transcript wheels into line as a supporter of Col. Boyd for congress. The name went to the head of the column by order of Mr. Emery.

16 Yards Standard Prints for $1.00, at S. EINSTEIN'S.

"LEAVE the table and go to your room, sir," exclaimed a Burlington person to his inconsiderate son, "and I'll be up and attend to you one after another." "Father," replied the youthful Tildenite, "it is absurd to fix a date without making necessary preparations.

The Peoria Transcript wheels into line as a supporter of Col. Boyd for congress. The name went to the head of the column by order of Mr. Emery.

16 Yards Standard Prints for $1.00, at S. EINSTEIN'S.

"LEAVE the table and go to your room, sir," exclaimed a Burlington person to his inconsiderate son, "and I'll be up and attend to you one after another." "Father," replied the youthful Tildenite, "it is absurd to fix a date without making necessary preparations.

The Peoria Transcript wheels into line as a supporter of Col. Boyd for congress. The name went to the head of the column by order of Mr. Emery.

16 Yards Standard Prints for $1.00, at S. EINSTEIN'S.

IN DECATOR
OLOMIEW
of PARASOLS,
ALL SUMMER.

ST.
POINTS, LACE
S to prices much
CLOSE.
ve named goods.
es of PRINTS,
estic Goods at SUAL. Also, a
S, BELTS and THOLEMEW.

TRATION!
EMENT
the Day.

our firm about Septem-

STOCK

and have PRICES

will convince you of it
stock MUST BE RE-

S, at

IN'S,
ER STREET.

JUSTEE'S SALE.

—Nicholas Rovely and Moen, ito, and Henry Jurgens and Mar-

August, A. D. 1876, and recorded page 10 of the records of Macon Illinoian, convey to the undernamed, in trust, the following real estate situated in the County of Illinois, to-wit:

Third principal meridian, A. D.
and eleven (11) in block one (1),
Addition to the city of Decatur, containing one-half acre, or thereabouts, secured to be paid by certified bond of even date with and payable to the order of John H. Kress, trustee, at the rate of ten per annum from date, payable semi-annually until maturity of said bond:

The slight shower of yesterday afternoon laid the dust partially and made it more comfortable getting about this morning. It had the effect also to cool
the air somewhat, which was very acceptable to sweltering humanity.

The stirring tragedy, "Katrina," by
Mrs. Cain's Star dramatic company at Macon Hall to-night.

Everybody is going to see Katrina
at Macon Hall to-night.

"Glo. Black" was entered for the running match at the fair ground yesterday, but for some reason he did not run. We presume he will make the race for Congress this fall but he will be well distanced.

"Lady Guest," one of the horses
entered yesterday for the trotting match,
was ruled out on the ground of not having made the required time until the day of entry. She is said to be an admirable gelding and bottom.

Secure your seats at Abbott's for
the Two Orphans to-night.

People were coming to town in large numbers this morning from all parts of the county to attend the fair, and there will be a large attendance to-day.

"Too thin"—Gen. Black's speech last night.

Several chaps who were inspired with benzine made a most ridiculous exhibition of themselves at the fair ground yesterday, for which nothing extra was charged.

A couple of chaps who got more benzine than they could stand were disclosing their "true inwardness" on the west side of the street near Wood this morning. For a time it seemed as if the heels of their boots would come up, but they finally managed to keep down enough of their "understanding" to walk
on, although they made a very "crooked"
business of it.

Don't fail to see Mrs. Cain as "Katrina" by Mrs. Cain's Star dramatic company at Macon Hall to-night.

Macon Hall.—This evening at Macon
Hall, Mrs. Cain's star dramatic company will present the thrilling drama,
"Katrina," with Mrs. Cain in the title role. Those who witnessed the rendition of this play on Monday evening last certainly desire to see it again, and will be likely to improve the opportunity which offers to-night, and those who have not seen it cannot afford to miss this opportunity. It will be borne in mind that this piece is Mrs. Cain's own conception, and all who see it played must admit that it evinces rare talent on the part of its author, which should be appreciated and encouraged.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE Court of Session, Macon county, October Term, 1876, will be held on the 2d and 3d of November, 1876, at 10 o'clock a.m. in the court room of the Court House, in the state of Illinois, to sell to the best bidder the real estate described in the right of equity, including Henry Jurgens and wife.

GEO. W. TOWNS, Trustee.

Notice in Attachment.

H. M. COOK, Esq.

County of Macon county, October

Term, 1876.

John G. Flint and Oscar

co-partners, vs. A. M. Berghert.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the Court of Session, Macon county,

October Term, 1876,

that a writ of attachment will be issued against the real estate, rights, money, credits, and chances which may be sufficient to support judgment and costs, will be made in the name of the plaintiff,

John G. Flint and Oscar

Berghert, for the sum of one-half mile south and one-half west of Oregon.

DANIEL GOOD.

ON MY CONCERN.

IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE

Court of Session, Macon county,

October Term, 1876,

will be held on the 2d and

3d of November, 1876, at 10 o'clock a.m.

in the court room of the Court

House, in the state of Illinois,

to sell to the best bidder the real estate described in the right of

equity, including the

real estate, rights, money, credits, and chances which may be sufficient to support judgment and costs, will be made in the name of the plaintiff,

John G. Flint and Oscar

Berghert, for the sum of

one-half mile south and one-

half west of Oregon.

JOHN CALLIN.

The Daily Republican.

Decatur, Illinois:
Thursday Evening, August 31.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce the name of D. C. Brewster, Esq., as a candidate for representative in the State Legislature, subject to the action of the Republican convention.

We are authorized to announce the name of A. H. Weston, of Marion township, as a candidate for Representative in the State Legislature, subject to the action of the Republican convention.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

Allen J. H. Moore at the court house tonight.

Allen J. H. Moore will answer General Black at the court house to-night.

At the opera house the great sensational drama of the Two Orphans tonight.

See Rainforth as Pierre, the Cripple, in the Two Orphans at the opera house
tonight.

Allen Selden Irwin, in her great impersonation of Louise, the blind girl, in the Two Orphans, to-night, at the opera house.

Allen Irwin, as Jacques, the outlaw, in the Two Orphans, to-night, at the opera house.

Go early to secure your seats for the Two Orphans at the opera house tonight.

Everybody should hear Gen. Moore's reply to Gen. Black to-night.

Everything fresh and nice in the way of vegetables at Niedermeyer's near the mound.

Fresh vegetables every day at Newell & Hammer's.

Everything nice and nobby in the line of boots and shoes may be found at J. P. Marsh's boot and shoe emporium, in opera block.

People coming to the fair should take time to examine the splendid stock of carpet goods now in stock at Abel & Locke's.

All kinds of curtain goods and paper hangings may be obtained at Abel & Locke's. They have some beautiful styles.

Rally around the flag to-night, and General Moore at the court house.

Too hot for comfort.

Worse and worse—mosquitoes.

The man who will invent something to keep a house clear of flies and mosquitoes, will have the thanks of humanity to the latest generation.

"Katrina" at Macon Hall, to-night.

Tomatoes by the peck at Adams &
Acre's.

Persons wishing nice table butter, fresh eggs or fat spring chickens will find a full supply at D. M. Barnett & Co's. Be sure and call to see them.

Billy Niedermeyer has a full line of the choicest brands of tea and coffee.

Post has all the latest publications of book and sheet music.

The slight shower of yesterday afternoon laid the dust partially and made
it more comfortable getting about this morning. It had the effect also to cool
the air somewhat, which was very acceptable to sweltering humanity.

The stirring tragedy, "Katrina," by
Mrs. Cain's Star dramatic company at Macon Hall to-night.

Everybody is going to see Katrina
at Macon Hall to-night.

"Glo. Black" was entered for the running match at the fair ground yesterday, but for some reason he did not
run. We presume he will make the race for Congress this fall but he will be well distanced.

"Lady Guest," one of the horses
entered yesterday for the trotting match,
was ruled out on the ground of not having made the required time until the day
of entry. She is said to be an admirable gelding and bottom.

Secure your seats at Abbott's for
the Two Orphans to-night.

People were coming to town in large numbers this morning from all parts of the county to attend the fair, and there will be a large attendance to-day.

"Too thin"—Gen. Black's speech last night.

Several chaps who were inspired
with benzine made a most ridiculous exhibition of themselves at the fair ground
yesterday, for which nothing extra was charged.

A couple of chaps who got more
benzine than they could stand were disclosing their "true inwardness" on the west side of the street near Wood this morning. For a time it seemed as if the heels of their boots would come up, but they finally managed to keep down
enough of their "understanding" to walk
on, although they made a very "crooked"
business of it.

Don't fail to see Mrs. Cain as "Katrina" by Mrs. Cain's Star dramatic company at Macon Hall to-night.

Macon Hall.—This evening at Macon
Hall, Mrs. Cain's star dramatic company will present the thrilling drama,
"Katrina," with Mrs. Cain in the title role. Those who witnessed the rendition of this play on Monday evening
last certainly desire to see it again, and will be likely to improve the opportunity which offers to-night, and those who have not seen it cannot afford to miss this opportunity. It will be borne in mind that this piece is Mrs. Cain's own conception, and all who see it
played must admit that it evinces rare
talent on the part of its author, which should be appreciated and encouraged.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE

Court of Session, Macon county,

October Term, 1876,

will be held on the 2d and

3d of November, 1876, at 10 o'clock a.m.

in the court room of the Court

House, in the state of Illinois,

to sell to the best bidder the real estate described in the right of

equity, including the

real estate, rights, money, credits, and chances which may be sufficient to support judgment and costs, will be made in the name of the plaintiff,

John G. Flint and Oscar

Berghert, for the sum of

one-half mile south and one-

half west of Oregon.

DANIEL GOOD.

ON MY CONCERN.

IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE

Court of Session, Macon county,

October Term, 1876,

will be held on the 2d and

3d of November, 1876, at 10 o'clock a.m.

in the court room of the Court

House, in the state of Illinois,

to sell to the best bidder the real estate described in the right of

equity, including the

real estate, rights, money, credits, and chances which may be sufficient to support judgment and costs, will be

